HOT BATTLES IN PRIMARIES BY RIVAL FACTIONS

Democratic and Republican Primaries in Manhattan and Brooklyn Bring About Desperate Struggles, that Between McCarren and Doyle Being Very Warm.

CHARGES OF FRAUD ARE MADE; ARRESTS IN BOTH BOROUGHES.

Robert Winston, an Election District Captain in the Twenty-first Assembly District, Alleged to Have Been Knocked Down by Members of the Gruber Faction.

There are hot primary fights in Greater New York this afternoon in two widely separated sections of the city. The Seventh District in Brooklyn, comprising Coney Island, Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay, William A. Doyle is fighting for the leadership against the McCarren candidate, Wogan. Senator McCabe and Assemblyman Kehoe are striving for the Democratic leadership in the Ninth District, which comprises the Red Hook neighborhood.

In Manhattan the fights are between rival Republicans. Alexander T. Mason, Odell's man, is trying to down former Alderman Franklin B. Ware, in the Twenty-ninth, and there is a concerted fight on Abraham Gruber in the Twenty-first. In both of these districts there were fights within a short time after voting began at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and two men were arrested at Fifty-third street and Sixth avenue as the result of an argument at a polling-place.

STARTED QUIETLY IN BROOKLYN.

The Brooklyn elections passed off quietly in the early hours of voting, although there was energetic work done all through the fighting districts. The odds were on Doyle in the Ninth, and with the powerful backing of "Kenny" Sutherland at Coney Island it appeared that he would win.

The Doyle adherents claimed after the opening of the polls that they had the influence of the Sullivan faction, which has a strong following at Coney Island and on the race tracks in the Gravesend and Sheepshead Bay sections. A large proportion of the transient population of Coney Island is recruited from the Bowery, and all are loyal to "Big Tim."

The district captain and watchman on both sides were on the alert for repeaters and false voters, and late today two arrests were made in the Thirty-second Election District, which takes in the Sheepshead Bay race-track.

The prisoners are Charles E. Daly, twenty-three years old, who gave stable No. 36, Sheepshead Bay, as his residence, and James Richy, twenty-two, who gave his residence as No. 63 Columbia street, Sheepshead Bay. Both are alleged to be Doyle men.

The Twenty-ninth District in Manhattan was a hotbed of excitement from the time the polls were opened. Louis Cardana, a district captain, and Gustav Voles, a voter, were arrested at Fifty-third street and Sixth avenue for fighting and aken to the West Side Court, where they were discharged. Both sides in this district made wholesale charges of corruption.

Since the Executive Committee of the Twenty-ninth District some time ago declared the then Alderman, Franklin B. Ware, leader of the district, temporarily deposing Alexander T. Mason, there has been much bitterness between the factions. Mr. Ware, who was eventually deposed, and Mr. Mason reinstated, is backed in his fight for the leadership by Newbold Morris, Robert C. Morris and a number of others.

The primary contest on the Republican side in the Twenty-first Assembly District appeared to start really before the polls opened at 2 o'clock. In this district the present leader, Abraham Gruber, is fighting for the retention of his leadership with Hector M. Hitchens. Mr. Hitchens is backed in his fight by Philip Bloch, Chief Clerk of the Police Magistrate's Courts.

STORY OF SANDBAGGING.

The first trouble of the day concerned Robert Winston, of No. 155 West One Hundredth street. Winston is an election district captain for the Hitchens forces in the Twenty-first Election District of the Twenty-first Assembly District. He did not appear at the polling place of his district in a barber shop at No. 2517 Broadway, and a report started that he had been sandbagged and assaulted. The Hitchens forces believed the story while Col. Gruber laughed at it.

The police of the West One Hundredth street station were notified and Detectives Fehercoq and Mangin were placed on his case.

After an investigation and report by the detectives the police were inclined to scout the assault story. They stated that Winston, who is about forty years old, was seen in the neighborhood of his home at 1230 o'clock, apparently ill. He went to his home, an apartment on the third floor, it is said, and a short time afterward his wife came out. Mrs. Hoffman, the landlady, said she was sure he was in his apartment, and she said she had heard that he had fallen down a flight of stairs, where or when she did not know.

Leader Hitchens and Clerk Bloch, with Detectives Mangin and Reagan, went to the home of Winston. After repeated knocks they managed to get into the apartment.

According to the story told the party, Winston left two of his lieutenants at 1230 o'clock and had several drinks in a saloon at One Hundred and First street and Amsterdam avenue. Winston was on his way home when two men approached him, one knocking him down and the other taking the ballots and disappearing. The other man, according to the story, drove Winston about Central Park in a carriage.

After the interview Winston was taken in charge by Mr. Hitchens and taken to the office of Dr. Jones in One Hundred and Third street, near Central Park West.

FIRE DRIVES OUT THIRTEEN FAMILIES

Wild Panic in a Big Tenement at Nos. 36 and 38 New Bowery, on Account of the Dense Smoke.

STARTED IN VARNISH IN ADJOINING HOUSE.

People in the Tenement Were at Dinner and Were So Scared That They Rushed Madly Downstairs.

The ten families in the big tenement-house at Nos. 36 and 38 New Bowery were driven from their rooms this evening by a fire in the factory of Martin Garvey, manufacturer of and dealer in hat and stove fixtures at No. 34. Although no one was injured, the smoke from the fire, the rush of flames in the light material in the Garvey factory and the noise of the engine caused a panic in which there were numerous sensational rescues.

The fire started on the third floor of the Garvey plant, in which there was a great quantity of varnish and excelsior stored. Before it was discovered it had eaten through to the roof of the four-story building and was working down to the lower floors.

In the big tenement next door most of the families were at the evening meal. The panic operated among those on the top floors and fathers, mothers and children tumbled down the stairs without regard to the steps.

Police men who were in the neighborhood dashed into the house and helped the frightened people out of the smoke-filled halls. A few were bruised, but the most damage was done to them from fright.

Because of the proximity of the tenement and the nature of the goods in the Garvey plant three alarms were sent in. The firemen succeeded in confining the fire to the Garvey building.

There were ten families on the upper floors of the tenement. After the flames had been subdued they scrambled back into their apartments to find dinners burned to a crisp on the stoves and the apartments full of thick smoke.

The first policemen on the scene said that if the fire had reached the tenement there must have been great loss of life among the tenants. It was fortunate that the men were at home, for the women did much to prevent the women from hurrying to the fire-escapes and perhaps jumping from the windows.

M'ADOO ASKS WALSH TO EXPLAIN

Commissioner Hints that He May Put a Gag in the Mouths of His Subordinates.

Commissioner McAdoo, discussing the published statement of Inspector Walsh to the effect that "the lid is partially off in the Tenderloin and can't be kept on tight," hinted that he might put a gag in the mouths of inspectors, captains and cops.

Asked if he had read the statement and as to its truth, the Commissioner said:

"I have, and I have inclosed every clipping to Inspector Walsh with a request for an explanation. He has replied verbally that he never made the statement. I directed him to put it in writing, and he will send a written explanation or denial to-morrow. As to the truth of the statement, I have nothing to say."

Then the Commissioner added, after a moment, thumbing a copy of the "Rules and Regulations, U. S. Navy": "There is a good rule in force in the Navy, which forbids any officer to discuss any public question—leaving all such for the head of the department. I hear policemen are great conversationalists. I don't want to put it to a great conversation club, like the U. S. Senate, as the late Thomas H. Reed put it, and perhaps a rule like the Navy rule, so that all information about the Police Department would come from the Commissioner, would be a good one."

VETERAN OPERATOR DEAD.

Charles J. Power Was Connected with Western Union for 20 Years.

Charles J. Power died yesterday at his residence, No. 81 East One Hundred and Forty-first street.

He was forty-three years old and had been connected with the Western Union Telegraph Company for thirty years.

In the early eighties he was official reporter for the Commercial News Department in the National News Building at 100 Broadway, New York City and for the past ten years he was chief operator in the Commercial News Department of the Western Union Telegraph Company. He leaves a widow.

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK, BIRMINGHAM, March 29.—The card was far from interesting at Birmingham this afternoon, for the reason that a majority of the races looked to be one-sided affairs in which top-heavy favorites looked to be certain.

This aspect of affairs made many of the bookies lay off to-day, for on the face of things it seemed as if there were no contesting them in the winning of so many favorites.

The only races where there looked to be the semblance of a contest were the first, fifth and the steeplechase.

The weather was charming, and the races were so easy to pick on that there was a splendid attendance. The track was in splendid condition, but not far from the standpoint of the feature was the fifth race, which brought about a meeting between Sais and Torchlight, both winners at the meeting.

Paul Clifford, the latter then went to the front and, drawing away, won cleverly by a length and a half from Mimom, who held her advantage to the end and beat Queen Elizabeth a similar distance for the place. Paul Clifford was one of the heaviest backed favorites of the meeting.
